Lightsaber Gizmo

The lightsaber was rendered with marker pen. A white streak and dark edges were included to give a cylindrical effect. The smaller cylinders included were rendered outside the main model and stuck on later due to the white streak being offset.

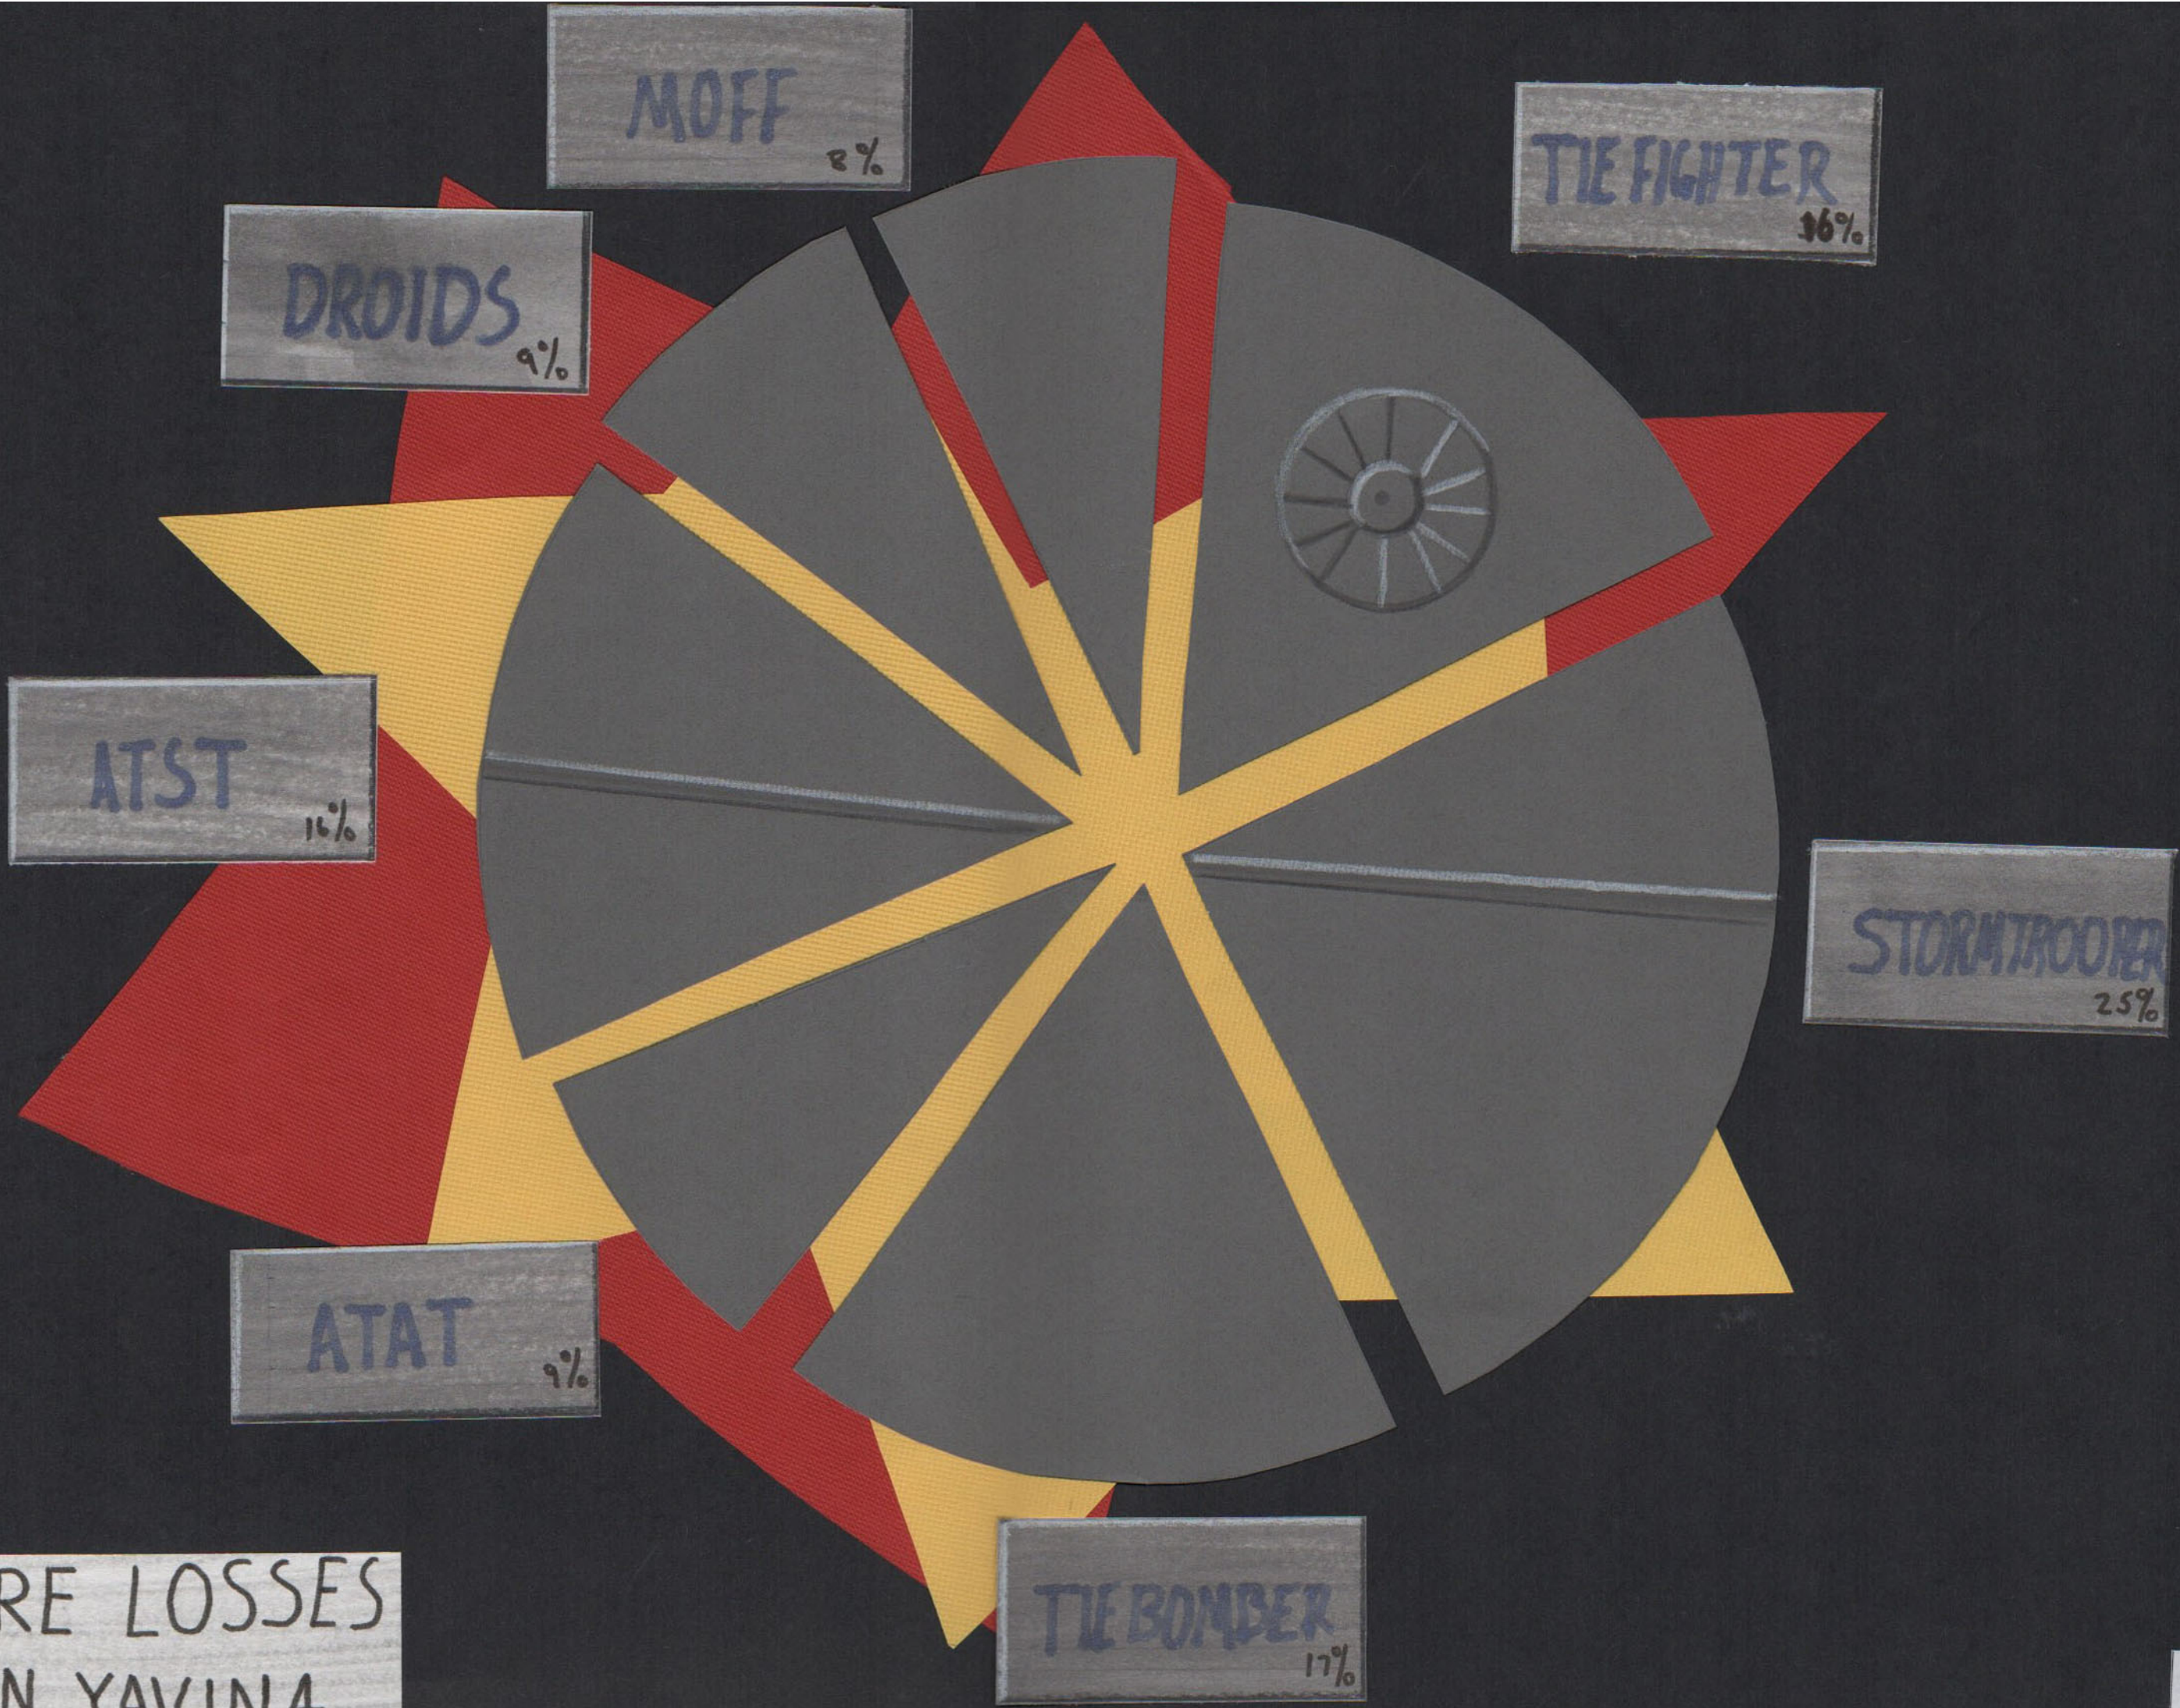

The colour red was chosen for the background for many reasons. Perhaps the most apparent is that it's a strong colour, and pulls the viewer in. Looking deeper into it, the red could be perceived as evil or menacing, the effect I was trying to bring over due to the lightsaber relating to the evil GALACTIC EMPIRE.

The Stormtrooper was added to stand out from the red and as it relates heavily to the general theme of the poster. The white is in harmony with the light gray of the lightsaber.

The black flash bar was incorporated to further emphasise the menacing effect as the apparel of Sith Lords are generally red lightsabers and black robes. The white Empire emblem was added on the top to serve as a logo and add to contrast the black. The navy border was to contrast the red, not blend the black (as black was going to be the original colour) and make the overall poster stand out.

THE POWER OF ONE DROID

How can one droid make your life easier?

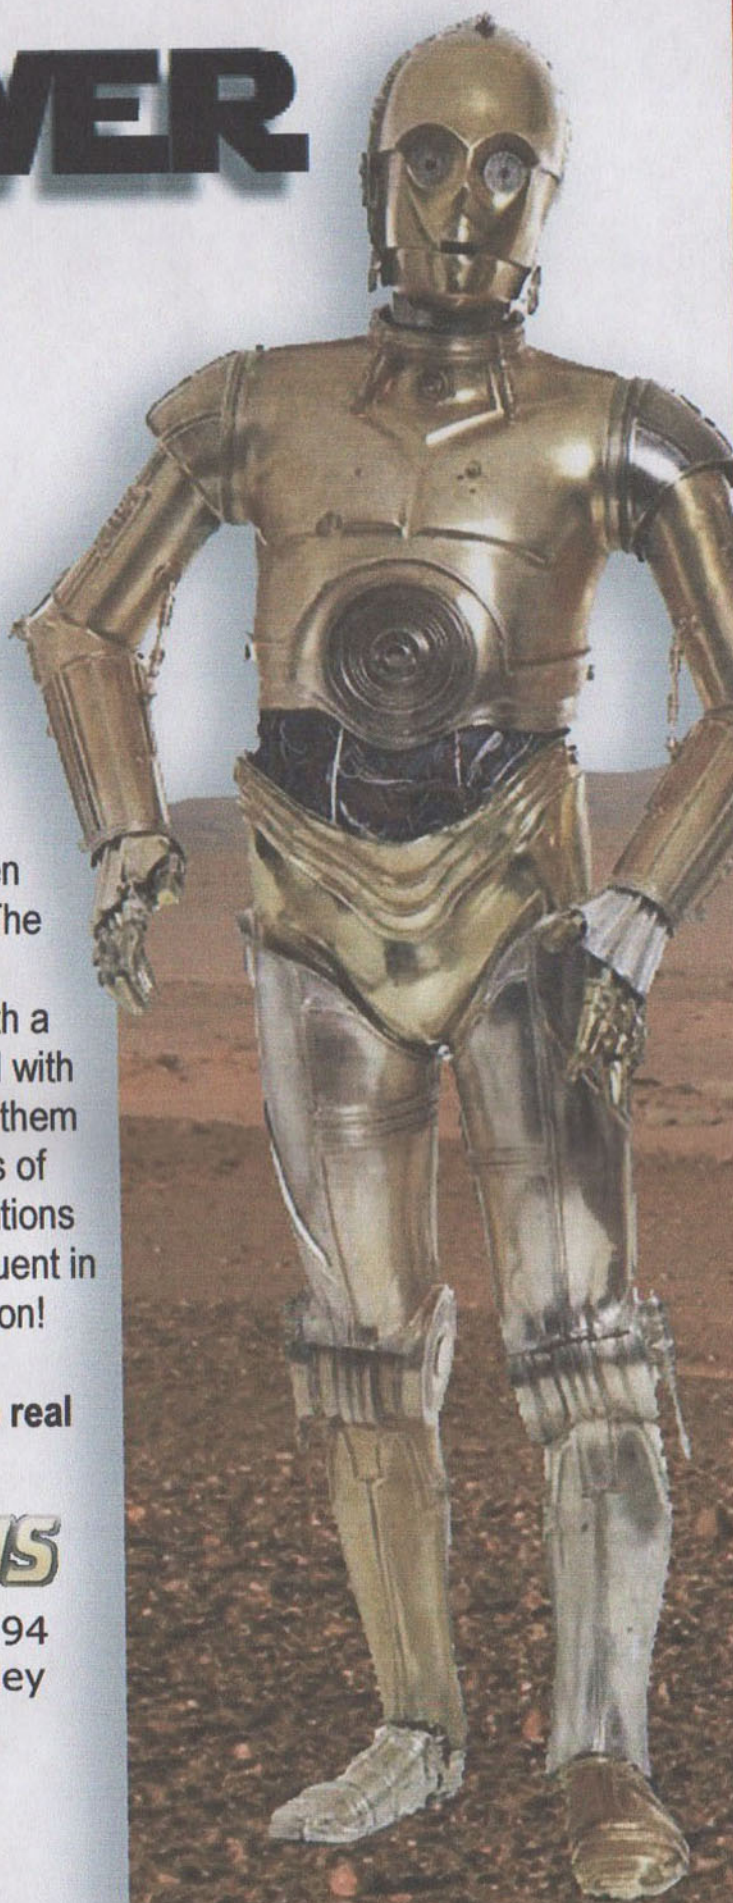

A 3PO-series protocol droid can open unmatched communication abilities. The typical 3PO-series droid stands at approximately 1.7 meters in height with a humanoid build. Each droid is equipped with a SyntheTech AA-1 VerboBrain making them capable of storing enormous amounts of information. A TranLang III Communications module is installed to allow them to be fluent in over six million forms of communication!

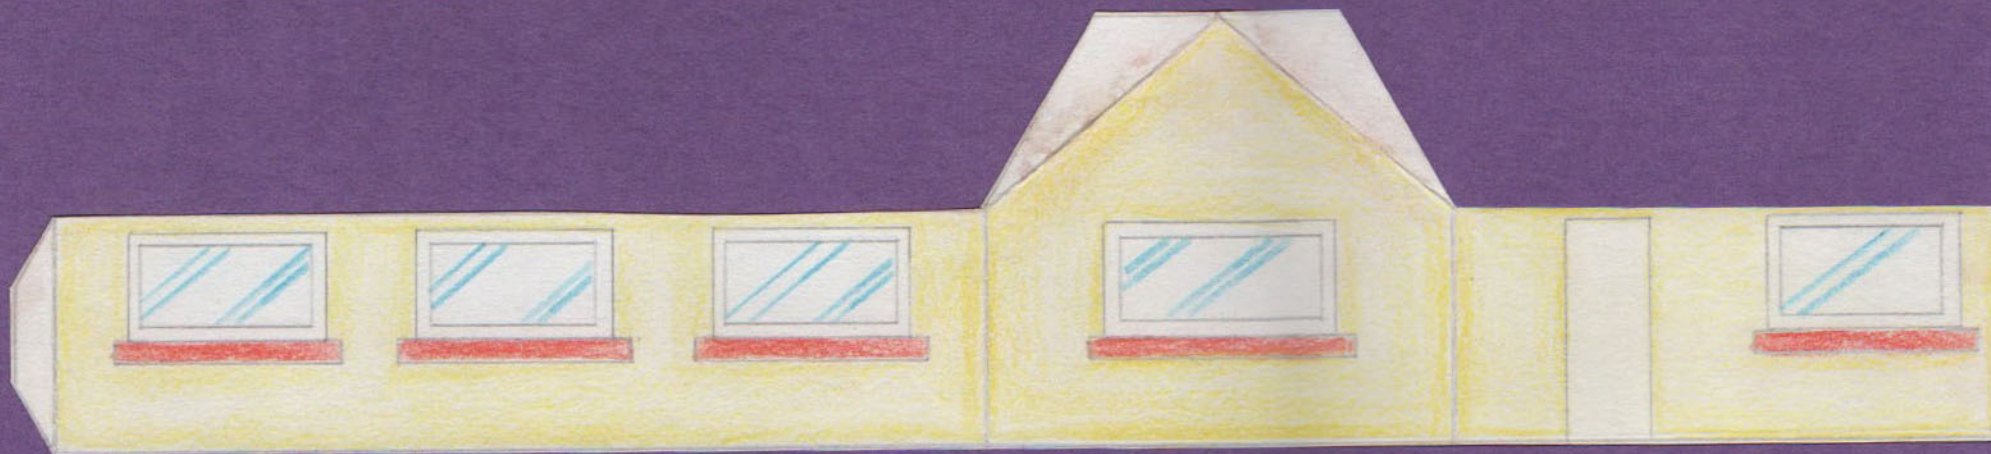

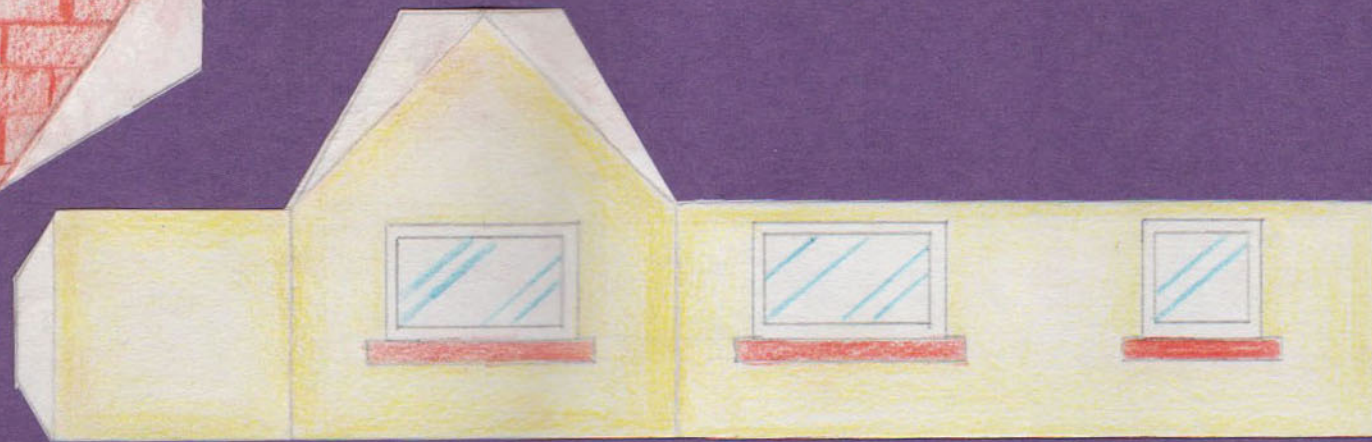

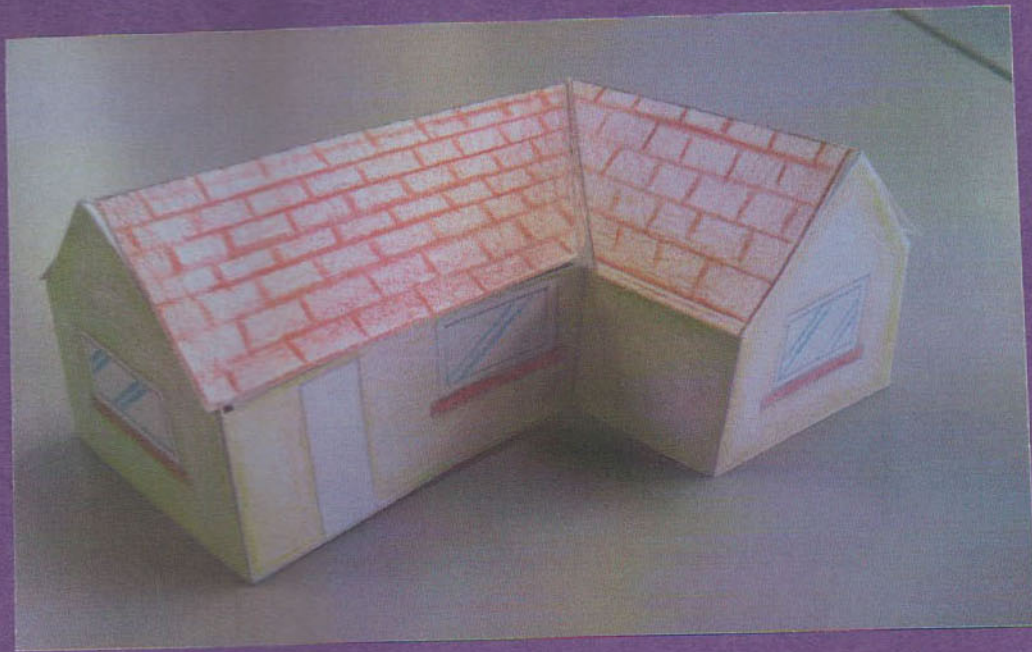

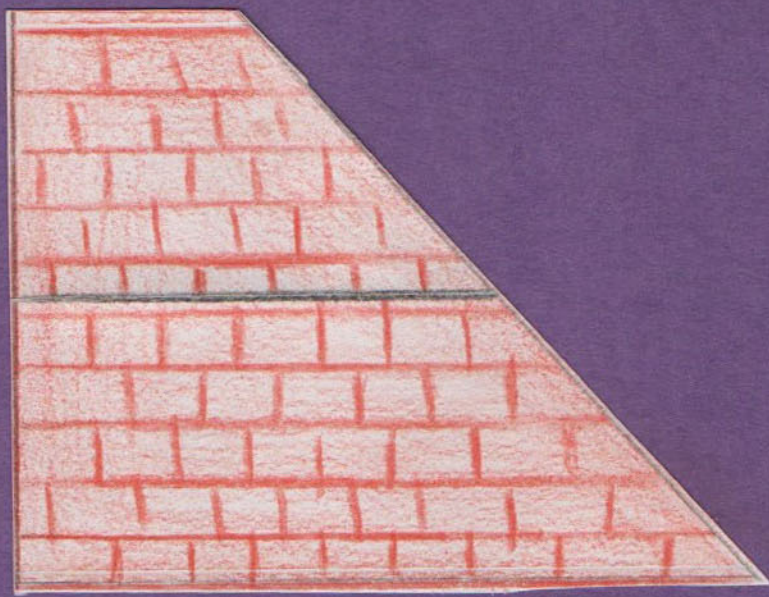

Each model is in prime condition - a real bargain!
